STUDENT DRESS CODE

Learning to dress appropriately for school, work, and recreation is an important learning experience and one that is stressed at the Robert H. Goddard High School. To assist our students in developing these habits of mind, our school expects its students to adhere to a recommended dress code.

Clothing selections should be conducive to the activities of learning. The following articles of clothing are considered inappropriate.

1. Shorts, skirts or dresses that do not reach the top of the knee.
2. Mesh or extremely sheer blouses or shirts that are not worn over a more solid article of clothing.
3. Spandex clothing.
4. Clothing that bares the midriff.
5. Halter tops or tank tops.
6. Clothing that is intentionally torn or has holes in inappropriate places.
7. Slippers, thongs, or flip-flop style shoes.
8. Hats (when worn in school), do-rags, baseball caps, bandannas, kerchiefs, etc.
9. No colored beads are to worn in the building.
10. Excessive amounts of jewelry or make-up.
11. Pants worn below the hips.
12. Clothing or buttons with an inappropriate emblem, insignia, writing or picture.
13. Tank-Tops.
14. Pajamas/slippers.

Students failing to adhere to this policy will be referred to the guidance counselor or supervisor for appropriate follow-up that will include parental contact and/or possible lunch detention. Students will be asked to change clothing or Parents will be asked to bring up appropriate clothing for their children.
